DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

1. Claims 1-4 and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by the U.S. Patent to Hess. The reference discloses vessel having a body 38 containing a volume of water 118, inlet 32 arranged substantially tangentially to cylindrical body 38 of the vessel as shown in Fig. 1, outlet 80, controller and timer 44-48 for controlling the rate of water inlet in comparison with the water outlet rate so as to vary the height of the volume in the vessel from a minimum to maximum over a period of one hour.
2. Claims 1, 5 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by the German patent to Sonnweber et al ('849). The reference discloses vessel with body 1, water inlet 5 arranged substantially tangentially to the body, controller 6 for controlling the rate of water inlet with respect to water outlet 7 to vary the height of the volume of water, downstream portion 2 being of greater diameter than that of the drain port 7.

3. Claim 8 and 16-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by the German patent to Koenig ('648). The reference discloses vessel with body 3 with tangential inlet shown at A-A in Fig. 1 creating vortex 6, controller described in col. 1, lines 1-60 for controlling the rate of water inlet to vary the height of water volume, such cyclic process providing an indication of time second identical vessel is suggested in the abstract, and several such cascaded vessels are further suggested for providing visual effects.

4. Claims 9-14 and 20 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

5. Claim 15 is allowed.
